

Claim Form FAQ

The following information is provided to assist in the submission of your Passenger Property Loss Claim. Please take a moment to review the Passenger Property Loss Claim. Providing the listed documents and information accurately can greatly expedite the processing of the submitted claim.

- Q - The Baggage Report I received at the airport when I filed my claim is the only evidence that I have of a pending claim, I do not want to send that copy. What can I do?
- A - Your copy of the Baggage Report may contain information helpful in the further tracing, location, or settlement of your baggage claim. You can submit a clear, legible, and identifiable copy of the Baggage Report received at the airport when you filed your claim.
- Q - Do I need to provide proof of flight travel?
- A - Yes, enclose your baggage tags and boarding passes for outbound and return travel.
- Q - What kind of picture identification is acceptable?
- A - Any clear, legible, and identifiable copy of a State issued Drivers License, State or Federal issued Identification Card, or Passport is preferred.
- Q - I do not have receipts for everything in my baggage. What is acceptable and/or required?
- A - Proof of ownership for some items may be required prior to settlement of your claim. Ownership and value may be evidenced by submitting originals of the following items...
- a) Store receipts
 - b) Credit card/bank statements
 - c) Cancelled checks
 - d) Owner's manuals
 - e) Photographs or appraisals dated prior to loss
- If you feel that an explanation is necessary for any submitted documentation, or lack of documentation, please enclose a note of explanation.
- Q - What do I enter in the columns for the area describing Luggage Contents?
- A - Column "Item": General item description, i.e. 'shirt', 'pants', 'shoes', 'blouse', etc.
Column "Qty": Quantity of the missing item(s)
Column "Color/Material": Specific color and material (i.e. leather, cotton)
Column "Brand/Label": Specific brand (Arrow, Manhattan, Sony) or model/serial number (FM60/SN123-456).
Column "Store Name": Store this item was purchased from.
Column "Size": Specific size (specific to clothing items contained in luggage).
Column "Gender (M/F/CHD)": Indicate item for Male (M), Female (F), or Child (C).
Column "Purchase Date (MO/YR)": - date item was purchased, acquired, or received as gift.
Column "Original Cost (In USD)": Original price of item in US Dollars. If you've listed multiple items on a single line, list the price per item (i.e. for 3 pairs of socks purchased at $2 each, you may list 3 in the QTY column and $2 in the Original Cost column).
- NOTE: Please be as descriptive and accurate as possible with the above fields, as our first interest is to locate your missing luggage and we're dependent on the information submitted to do so.
- Q - I do not have enough space to list all my items. What should I do?
- A - You may make copies of the form in the quantities necessary to list each item on a single line or list items on additional lined paper maintaining same column format.
- Q - Everything is complete! Where do I send the Property Loss Claim?
- A - Send your completed claim form to the address on the last page of the form.
- Q - How long will it take to get my claim resolved?
- A - Once we receive your claim form it is assigned to a Baggage Specialist for individual attention. You will receive a response from your assigned Baggage Specialist with 30 days from receipt of the claim form – it will usually be much quicker but may depend on work volumes at that time.
- Q - Can I contact Central Baggage Services?
- A - You may contact Central Baggage Services at (214) 560-3600 Monday-Friday 8:00am-5:00pm CST. Specific information on your claim, however, will not be available until your assigned Specialist has had time to review the information you submitted.
